

House Resolution No. 1722

Whereas, it is with special pleasure that the members of the Missouri House of Representatives pause to recognize Karen Clark, an esteemed resident of Tarkio, Missouri, who has distinguished herself as the Missouri Rural Water Association (MRWA) Clerk of the Year for the state of Missouri for 2003; and

Whereas, Karen Clark received the prestigious award during the MRWA annual meeting held March 18, 2004, in Springfield; and

Whereas, Karen Clark currently serves as secretary/clerk for the Tarkio Board of Public Works, formerly the Tarkio Water Company, which she joined in August of 1987; and

Whereas, the proud recipient of the 1995 Clerk of the Year award, Karen Clark has a list of impressive credentials that include both her "A" water license and Distribution III license; and

Whereas, Karen Clark's nomination information was highlighted by her work on the new water tower project for Tarkio as well as the recent transition from the Tarkio Water company to the Tarkio Board of Public Works; and

Whereas, Karen Clark has been abundantly blessed with the love and admiration of her wonderful husband, Kent, who attended the MRWA annual meeting with her:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-second General Assembly, unanimously join in extending our most hearty congratulations to Karen Clark upon her most worthy receipt of the MRWA Clerk of the Year award for the state of Missouri for 2003; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for Karen Clark.

Offered by _____ Representative Brad Lager
District No. 4

I, Catherine L. Hanaway, Speaker of the House of Representatives, Ninety-second General Assembly, Second Regular Session, do certify that the above is a true and correct copy of House Resolution No. 1722, adopted April 14, 2004.

Catherine L. Hanaway, Speaker